

Key Vocabulary

housing
transport
natural disasters
flooding
earthquakes
culture
population
climate coast
environmental impact hemisphere
equator
border
port/ harbour,

Leeds and Tokyo

In this topic children will learn about the human and physical features that make these cities unique. We will focus on the similarities and differences about the cities and how people live in them. We will learn about where they are in the world and how the weather affects how they live.

Leeds in the United Kingdom

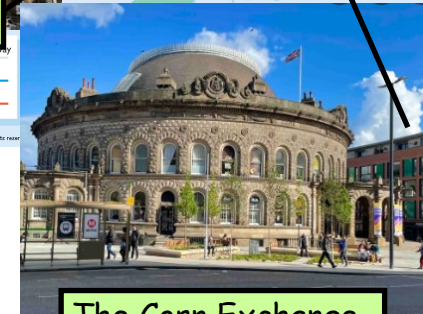

Tokyo Sky Tree

The River Aire

Leeds Town Hall

The Corn Exchange

Tokyo Bay

Essential Knowledge

Leeds is in Europe and Tokyo is in Asia.

The River Aire runs through Leeds.

Tokyo has a bay.

Weather is different because of where in the world they are.

Houses look different in Tokyo and Leeds.

	Leeds	Tokyo
City	Leeds	Tokyo
Country	England (part of the UK)	Japan
Continent	Europe	Asia
Planet	Earth	Earth